Candidate Fact Sheet – Christian Ehiobuche

Name and Title: Christian Ehiobuche, Assistant Professor; Business Studies, Management and Healthcare Administration and Leadership

School: BUSN

Position sought: Graduate Representative, Committee on Academic Policies

Number of Years at Stockton: 1

Why do you want to be a Graduate Representative? What would you bring to this position?

I joined Stockton with over 18 years of experience in higher education during which I served in several Self- Study Committees, program planning, and accreditation taskforces. My mandate at Stockton includes to Chair the New MHAL (MBA Healthcare Administration and Leadership Program) effective from July 1st. It is therefore essential that being a Graduate Representative on the Committee of Academic Programs and Planning will allow me to participate in proposal reviews and program developments. Being a member of this committee will provide me the opportunity to contribute service wise at a wider University Level.

Name and Title: Amit Mukherjee, Associate Professor of Business Studies

School: BUSN

Position sought: Graduate Representative, Committee on Academic Programs and Planning

Number of Years at Stockton: 15

Why do you want to be a Graduate Representative? What would you bring to this position?

I bring 15 years of experience teaching in the MBA program at Stockton as well as being Associate Director, Dual Degree (BS/MBA) for 3 years. I have gained experience in preparing and submitting new program proposal to this committee (as Chair of International Business Task Force). I want to be a Graduate Representative to serve, and specifically to serve the interests of the Graduate Programs.

Candidate Fact Sheet – Daniel Tulino

Name and Title: Daniel Tulino, Assistant Professor of Education

School: EDUC

Position sought: Graduate Representative, Committee on Academic Programs and Planning

Number of Years at Stockton: 1

Why do you want to be a Graduate Representative? What would you bring to this position?

I am a strong believer in advocating for faculty and staff viewpoints on all issues while seeking to utilize available and accurate data in decision making. My hope is that I can assist in making recommendations on university policy, governance issues, and other issues that relate to and concern faculty. Further, one of my biggest hopes is to build, maintain, and sustain communication between faculty, administration, and all other members of campus life. I also hope to assist in collecting and analyzing faculty and staff perceptions and recommendations as they relate to fiscal planning and governance with the overall goal of improving faculty working experiences.
