	Rental of football stadium to local high schools.	Exempt	GCM 37522	The promotion of sports is an educational activity and is therefore related to the University's exempt purpose.
	Use of recreational facilities for classes offered to the general public and alumni	Exempt	RR 77-365	The conduct of University's clinics, lessons, workshops and seminars at recreational areas, to instruct and educate individuals of all ages in a particular sport, is in furtherance of the University's educational purpose.
	Use of University-owned golf course by alumni; spouse and guests of students, faculty and staff.	Report	PLR 9720035 PLR 200047049	Alumni are not sufficiently distinguishable from the general public. Spouses and guests are also treated as members of general public and do not fall within the convenience exception.

CATEGORY	DESCRIPTION	EXEMPT/ REPORT	AUTHORITY	COMMENTS
Films	The showing of films that is not commercially available. Some films relate to courses offered by the University. The showing is open to the general public.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2) and RR 75-471	The showing of films designed to educate the public, students of films, and aspiring film makers in new techniques and artistic developments in the film industry is related to the University's exempt educational purpose.
	Rental of films that are related to course curriculums. All rentals are to students.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2) and Reg. 1.513-1(e)(2)	The rental of educational films is related to the University's exempt purpose. Moreover, this service is provided solely for the convenience of University members.
Hospitals	Use of cafeteria by non-patients.	Exempt	RR 69-268	The operation of a hospital cafeteria primarily for use by employees and patients is not taxable within the meaning of IRC 513(a)(1). Allowing visitors to use the cafeteria allows them more time to spend with patients, which is considered supportive therapy.
	Sale of cafeteria, purchasing, data processing, record center, warehousing, billing and collection, printing, communication, personnel, clinical, laboratory and industrial engineering services to another tax-exempt hospital.	Exempt	IRC 513(e) IRC 501(e)(1)(A)	The furnishing of services to another tax-exempt hospital does not constitute an unrelated trade or business if the services are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Provided at a fee not exceeding actual costs; 2) Furnished solely to hospitals serving not more than 100 inpatients; and 3) Consistent with the recipient hospital's exempt function.

Joint Ventures	Sales of patient lithotripsy services through a joint venture with the Kidney Stone Medical Clinic. The clinic is also used for clinical teaching and research.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2)	The formation of a joint venture between the University and a for-profit entity is not taxable if it contributes importantly to the University's exempt purpose. Joint venture relationships may be scrutinized by the IRS, however, to ensure that the University is not serving the private purpose of the for-profit entity.
Learning Resources	Provision of instructional aides to University students, faculty, area school teachers and the general public.	Exempt	Reg. 1.501(c)(3)-1(d)(3) Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2)	This activity is in furtherance of the University's educational purposes.
Lifeguard, CPR, First Aid Classes and Recertification	Educational classes offered to the general public leading to certification in these areas.	Exempt	Reg. 1.501(c)(3)-1(d)(3) Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2)	This activity is in furtherance of the University's educational purposes.
Locker Rental – Student Recreation Center	Lockers rented to University students, faculty, and staff. Lockers rented to spouses and dependents of University members.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(e)(2) Reg. 1.513-1(c)(2)(ii)	Service conducted primarily for convenience of University members is excluded from UBI. Intermittent activity-not conducted with competitive or promotional efforts of commercial enterprises.

Parking Services	Rental of parking spaces including the provision of security services.	Report	IRS 512(b)(3) TAM (Proposed) RR 69-269	The operation of a parking lot for use by the general public is considered an unrelated trade or business regardless of whether any services are provided for the convenience of the occupant. The operation of a parking lot by an exempt organization is conclusively deemed to be the provision of services for the convenience of the occupant, and therefore the income received is not rent. However, if any exempt organization leases the parking lot operation to a third party, the income would constitute rent depending on the type of services provided. On the other hand, the operation of a parking lot is not taxable if it is in furtherance of the organization's exempt purpose. For example, the provision of parking services for patients and visitors of a an exempt hospital, in an area without adequate parking, is not subject to unrelated business income tax since such an operation is consistent with the hospital's exempt purpose.
Photo Service	Passport photo service available to University students, faculty, and staff.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(e)(2)	Service conducted primarily for convenience of University members is excluded from UBI.

	Passport photo service available to the general public. Sales to general public are very infrequent – less than 5 times per year.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(c)(2)(ii)	Intermittent activity – not regularly carried on as it occurs less than 5 times per year.
	Sale of photographs taken at University sponsored events to University students, faculty staff and the general public.	Exempt	PLR 8623081	Sales of novelty items at University sponsored (related) events are treated as an integral part of the events and not subject to UBI.
Printing	Sale of library photocopying services.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2)	The sale of library reproduction services is related to the University's exempt educational purpose since it preserves the University's library materials and disseminates information.
	Provision of in-house printing and library bookbinding services for University faculty and associate institutions.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(e)(2)	The provision of printing and bookbinding services for the convenience of University members is exempt.
	Sales of printing services to non-University members	Report	Reg. 1.513(d)(2)	The sale of printing services to non-University members is not related to the exempt purpose of the University.
Printing Service	Sale of digital printing services and supplies to the general public.	Report	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2)	The sale of printing services and supplies to non-University members is not related to the University's exempt purposes.

Recreational Memberships	Sale of recreational memberships to University students, faculty, and staff.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(e)(2)	Service conducted primarily for convenience of University members is excluded from UBI.
	Sale of recreational memberships to dependents and guests of University members, alumni, and the general public.	Report	TAM 9645004 PLR 9720035	Sales to spouses and dependents of University members do not qualify for the convenience exception. Additionally, alumni should be treated in the same manner as the general public for purposes of UBI.
Relief of Government Burden	Provision of case-finding and abstracting services to local hospitals. The services are furnished under a State mandated regional tumor registry.	Exempt	RR 85-2 Reg. 1.501(c)(3)-1(d)(2)	The lessening of a governmental burden satisfies a charitable purpose under which an organization may qualify for tax-exempt status. In applying this exemption, the IRS has determined that it is necessary for an organization to identify the function that a governmental unit considers to be its burdens and to then determine under what conditions the organization's activities actually "lessen" such burdens. The statutory requirement for the establishment and maintenance of Statewide tumor registries provides the "objective manifestation" that a governmental unit considers a particular activity to be its burden. Moreover, funds for setting up the registry were provided by the State, subject to monitoring by the State.

Rents (lease basis)	Rental of a campus building or space within a building	Exempt	IRC 512(b)(3)	Rents from real property are exempt.
	Rental of athletic facilities and equipment to non-University members. Revenue is derived from rental of real property (95%) and personal property (5).	Exempt	Reg. 1.512(b)-1(c)(ii)(b)	Rents from personal property are not taxable if there is a mixed lease and the rents attributable to the personal property are incidental" (10% or less).
Rents	Rental of the football stadium to the San Diego Chargers. Significant services are provided, including field maintenance and locker room facilities.	Report	RR 80-298	The leasing of a football stadium to a professional football team is not in furtherance of the University's education purpose. Since the furnishing of substantial services for the convenience of the occupant is beyond those usually rendered in connection with the rental of space for occupancy only, the income is not excluded as rent from real property under Reg. 1.512(b)-1(c)(5).
	Lease of clinical medical office space (10% personal property) and support services to non-University affiliated physicians for their private practices.	Report	IRC 512(b)(3)	The real property exclusion is lost if services other than those customarily provided for the convenience of the lessee are provided. Moreover, because the physicians are not University members, the lease arrangement does not further the University's exempt purposes.
Research	Sales or research services to Eastman Kodak Company under a private grant. The research results are published in national journals and are made available to the general public.	Exempt	IRC 512(b)(9)	The conduct of "fundamental" (as distinguished from "applied") research performed by a University for "any person," the results of which are made available to the public, is not taxable.

	Sale of research related clinical services including diagnostic procedures and tools developed by the University. All sales are to non-University members. Similar services are available commercially.	Report	Re. 1.513(b)-1(f)(4)	The provision of “applied” research services of a type ordinarily carried on as an incident to commercial or industrial operations is a taxable activity.
Royalties	Sales of licensed tangible biological materials and software programs.	Exempt	IRC 512(b)(2)	Income from royalties, however measured, is exempt from the unrelated business income tax.
Sales (Misc.)	Sales of excess crops used in research. The crops are sold in an “as is” condition when mature.	Exempt	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(4)(ii)	Income derived from the sale of goods which result from the performance of an exempt function is not taxable if the product is sold in substantially the same state it was in upon completion of the exempt function.
Sales	Sale of peptides to non-University members. No students are involved in the process.	Report	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2)	The sale of peptides is not related to the exempt purpose of the University.
	Sale of bikes, bike parts and equipment, and provision of bike repair services to University members.	Report Exempt	GCM 35811 IRC 513(a)(2)	The sale of non-educational items with an ordinary useful life of more than one year is not included within the scope of the convenience exception. However, the remote location of the campus suggests that the repair service is operated primarily for the convenience of University members and is therefore an exempt activity.

	Sale of emblematic items (T-shirts, mugs, caps, pennants, etc.) to alumni (95%) and the general public (5%). The sales are made by mail order on a regular basis.	Report	GCM 35811 PLR 8025222	The sale of emblematic items is not substantially related to the exempt purpose of the University. Moreover, these sales are not for the convenience of University members since alumni are considered member of the general public.
	Sale of clothing and other items to the University community that are embossed with the University seal.	Exempt	PLR 8025222	Bookstore or other on-campus sale of University logo items to members of the University community qualify under the convenience rule of sec. 513(a). Sales to the general public are considered unrelated business income.
Services (Misc.)	Sale of meter testing services to non-University members.	Report	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2)	The sale of these services is not related to the exempt purpose of the University.
	Sale of drug testing services to employers.	Report	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2)	The sale of these services is not related to the exempt purpose of the University.
	Sale of library services, including documents delivery, to law firms, businesses, and members of the general public.	Exempt	RR 81-29	Providing library services or access to such services to non-exempt users for research purposes is related to the University's exempt purpose.
Storehouse	Sale of storehouse goods to non-profit agencies.	Report	Reg. 1.513-1(d)(2)	The sale of storehouse goods to non-University members is not related to the University's exempt purpose.

Sports Camps	Conduct of annual summer sports camps by University personnel for the general public and children of University students and employees.	Exempt	PLR 8024001	Instruction of the general public in sports is in furtherance of the University's educational purpose. The University is not limited to instruction in business or related subjects in carrying out an educational program.
	Rental of campus facilities to outside organizations for the conduct of summer sports camps. Services such as meals, linen, and daily maid service are provided.	Exempt	RR 77-365 PLR 7908009	Instruction in sports furthers the educational purpose of the University. As long as the activity is educational, University involvement in the activity is not required.
Summer Sports Camps	University-operated summer sports camps for pre-college age youth of University faculty, staff, students and the general public where sports facilities, dorm rooms, meals, linens, and maid service may be provided by the University to the participants.	Exempt	RR 77-365 PLR 7908009	The purposes of the sports camps are to improve athletic ability of participants, acquaint them with the University and when applicable, provide experience for camp counselors who may be college students. Such instruction in sports is therefore educational.
	University contracts with third party who operates the summer sports camp. The University merely rents its sports facilities to the third party without provision of substantial services.	Exempt	RR 80-297	Income is excluded from UBI as rents from real property.
