Galloway Township, NJ -The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, in conjunction with Brett Danko, CFP and Charles Weeks, CFP, JD, is offering a two-day continuing education conference for Certified Financial Planners on Oct 1-2, 2014 at the Stockton Seaview Hotel and Golf Club.

Brett Danko, an active financial planner from Lawrenceville, NJ, runs Main Street Financial Solutions, LLC. He has worked in the financial services industry, lectured nationwide on personal finance and conducts CFP training programs for many national investment firms.

Charles Weeks is founder and president of Barrister Wealth Management LLC, which provides financial planning, investment and risk management, and retirement and insurance planning. He teaches Finance and Financial Planning courses in Stockton's School of Business and is an instructor in the college's Certified Financial Planner program in the School of Graduate and Continuing Studies.

The registration fee of $449 includes the two-day conference, lodging at the Stockton Seaview Resort, meals and a welcome reception on Oct. 1. The program will cover the latest in behavioral finance, Medicare, estate planning, planning to pay for college, Social Security and the best practices for a successful retirement. Participants will receive up to 10 state CE credits, 10 CFP credits plus 2 hours of ethics credits.

The program will be conducted on Wednesday, Oct. 1 from 12:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.; and on Thursday, Oct. 2 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.
