Galloway, NJ - Stockton University's Master of Arts in Holocaust and Genocide Studies Program is hosting a free film screening of Joshua Oppenheimer's documentary, "The Look of Silence."

The film, nominated for an Academy Award as Best Documentary Feature in 2016, will be shown in the Campus Center Theatre at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, March 9. The film is the companion piece to Oppenheimer's 2014 Academy Award nominated documentary "The Act of Killing" and focuses on the present-day lives of the victims of the Indonesian killings of 1965-66, in which almost a million people were killed followed a coup, and their search for truth and justice.
