Galloway Township, NJ- Stockton's Holocaust Resource Center is pleased to announce a portrait exhibit of 82 portraits of Holocaust Survivors of Atlantic and Cape May Counties. The exhibit, "Portraits of Resilience: Holocaust Survivors of South Jersey," will be displayed at the Milton and Betty Katz Jewish Community Center, 501 North Jerome Avenue, Margate, NJ 08402, from November 10 to December 12, 2008.

The JCC is hosting this portrait exhibit, which is free and open to the public. This exhibit was made possible by a grant from the Foundation of the Jewish Federation of Atlantic and Cape May Counties.

A book featuring the 82 portraits and narratives of these Holocaust survivors will be available. The book was funded in part by The Foundation of the Jewish Federation of Atlantic and Cape May Counties and the New Jersey Council for the Humanities, a state partner of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

For more information about the exhibit or to make reservations for a school group or organization please call The Richard Stockton College's Holocaust Resource Center at (609) 652-4699.
