Galloway, NJ – Stockton University will host a free lecture titled, “What is Genocide?” as part of the Holocaust & Genocide program series. The lecture will be held at the Manahawkin Instructional Site, located at 712 E. Bay Ave. in Manahawkin, N.J. on Wednesday, March 30 from 10:30 – 11:30 a.m. A complimentary lunch will be served courtesy of Brandywine Senior Living.

Douglas Cervi, an instructor at Stockton University, will define modern genocide, which began in 1905 and still continues today. The program will discuss the current situation in the Middle East being perpetrated by ISIS/ISIL.

Light refreshments will be provided. To register, call the Manahawkin Instructional Site at 609-626-3883.
