Galloway Twp., NJ – Nelson Johnson, author of Boardwalk Empire: The Birth, High Times and Corruption of Atlantic City will present a free lecture at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, at 4:30 p.m., on Thursday April 19 in West Quad Room 124 on the Galloway Township campus.

This event, presented by the Hospitality and Tourism Management Program, is part of Stockton's Distinguished Lecture Series.

Rights to Johnson's book were recently secured by HBO to be produced as a series by Martin Scorsese and Mark Wahlberg.

Johnson is currently working on a new book that focuses on the African American experience in Atlantic City. He is expected to touch on both projects during his talk.
