Galloway Township, NJ – On Wednesday, May 16, 2007, cyclists will begin a slow-paced bike ride (maximum of 12 miles per hour) to honor those individuals who have been injured or killed while cycling on public roadways.

The Ride of Silence™ began in 2003 and was organized by Chris Phelan in Dallas after Larry Schwartz an endurance cyclist was hit by the mirror of a passing bus and died as a result of his injuries.

At 6:45 P.M. participants will meet in parking lot 5 adjacent to the Sports Center. Cyclists will be provided a police escort and the ride is anticipated to last approximately one hour at an average of 12 miles per hour for a distance of 12 miles. Cyclists should bring a bike and a helmet.
