Galloway Township, NJ- The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey will conduct commencement exercises for its 37th four-year class on Saturday May 9, 2009 in the Sports Center on the Galloway Twp. campus.

There will be two separate ceremonies for different divisions of the College. All Graduate and Continuing Studies, Arts and Humanities, Business and Education candidates will take part in a 10:00 a.m. ceremony. All General Studies, Natural Sciences and Mathematics, Health Sciences, and Social and Behavioral Science candidates will participate in a ceremony at 2:00 p.m. In addition, there will be a special "Hooding Ceremony" to give extra recognition to the Masters Degree candidates. This event will take place 8:30 a.m. in the Stockton Performing Arts Center.

Admission tickets are distributed to each graduate. See your graduate to obtain a ticket to the event.

Dr. Gary Loveman, Chief Executive Officer of Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. will speak at the morning ceremony. Stockton's Vice President for Student Affairs Dr. Joseph Marchetti will give the keynote address at the afternoon ceremony.

A projected total of more than 1,000 spring undergraduate candidates will participate in the ceremonies.
