- The boxes below expand as needed to accommodate your notes. You may also include/submit appendices or attachments, if needed.
- Email a copy of this completed form to Jessica Kay, Senior Planning Analyst at: 2020@stockton.edu or Jessica.Kay@stockton.edu.

Please provide a summary of the project and your experience.

The goal was to create global opportunities for Stockton by initiating an MOU with UTFSM in Chile. This had three activities.

First, presenting, then publishing, internationally collaborative research (wine sustainability data from NJ & Santiago region of Chile) with colleague from partner University (UTSM - Chile), at an internationally recognized academic meeting (Association of Wine Economists – Padua, Italy).

Second, I invited Dr. Lionel Valenzuela from UTFSM to Stockton as a guest lecturer. He presented on economic and environmental issues in Chile (mining, fisheries, wine) at Stockton.

Third, I have gone to Chile to develop a student study tour, short term study abroad. The course will run Fall 2020.

In addition, this funding received considerable matching funds from UTFSM.

Please attach a copy of your original proposal or list your stated objectives and expected outcomes.

- 1) First, conference presentation at an international conference with subsequent publication of research in peer review journal (ideally Journal of Wine Economics or Society & Natural Resources). Also, it allows the opportunity to network and collaborate with other foreign scholars, apply for grants within the wine industry, and develop other MOUs with other universities around the world. Success will be measured by presentation of research and publication of research paper.
- 2) Allowing students, faculty and community to learn about interdisciplinary research from a scholar from South American and further globalize our campus. Success will be measured by number of students/faculty/staff attending the lectures and the publication of the visit in local papers, Stockton Times and maybe Presidents report. Ideally this will begin the exchange of lecturers between Stockton and UTSM more regularly.
- 3) Develop another short-term international opportunity for students to study abroad. The course will be interdisciplinary, and collaborative between Stockton and UTSM. Many students don't have the money or time to study abroad for a semester or more – this short term opportunity can bolster Stockton’s numbers of study abroad and globalize education for our generally regional students. Success measured by successful development of a field-study study abroad course.

Please describe the results of your project and compare them to your original expectations. Elaborate on how well your objectives were met and how they might have changed. Note any particular obstacles that may have prevented your achieving full satisfaction on desired outcomes.

1. Research was presented at two conferences
(2017) Sustainability and its Impact on Chile’s Vineyards. 10th International Conference of the Academy of Wine Business Research (AWBR), July 25-28, 2017 (Sonoma, CA) refereed conference, 2nd Author

(2017) Sustainability: Best Management Practices – Wineries in Santiago, Chile & New Jersey USA. 11th Annual Conference of the Association of American Wine Economists (AAWE), June 28-July 2, 2017 (Padua, Italy) refereed conference
2. Invitation was made and Dr. Valenzuela presented two lectures at Stockton University on April 24, 2018. Posters were made & distributed and turnout was good. He was able to leverage matching funds from his university for this visit. We paid for his flight only & I took him out to dinner a bunch of times on my own. An interview was even conducted by students in the language program.

3. The reconnaissance trip to develop the field study course was delayed until December 2018. The course has been outlined and will run for the first time in Fall 2020 semester.

Please list any follow-up actions (publications, presentation venues, etc.)

This funding has really developed so many more new initiatives. A) field study course for students from Stockton to Chile (Fall 2020), B) Field study course for Chilean students to Stockton (TBD time), C) new research projects, D) many new collaborations and partnerships between Stockton & UTFSM

Are you recommending the continuation of this project? If so:

- What are the next action steps you foresee or recommend?
- What are the expected budget requirements going forward?
- Please identify the program, department, or division you should be working with to secure continuation of funding for your project.

[Note: continuation proposals must be approved and incorporated into the appropriate budget process. This report will not constitute a request for permanent funding.]

Some funds were rolled into FY 2019, but this funding and work was completed. The field study course is already an approved GIS course and I will work with OGE to make it a reality for Stockton students.
